

Tca Anant board//Date of interview: 20/4/2022//Graduation: electronics and communication//Hobbies: yoga and greeting card making//Optional: Kannada literature

Chairperson:

Q1. What were u doing after your graduation?

Q2. What is 5G?

Q3. Why is huge infrastructure required?

Q4. People are opposing the installation of towers in their areas will they oppose 5G also?

Q5. Why government is going for 5G?

Member 1:

Q1. Which report talked about impact of radiation on human?

Q2. Would online education replace offline education?

Q3. What is higher education?

Q4. What are the latest technology available for this generation to use in governance?

Q4. How do you use nanotechnology in governance?

Member 2:

questions were very long.

Q1. In case of disruption of communication like in Ukraine how will you establish communication in such situation

Q2. How do you spread the Kannada language?

Member 3:

Q1. Which language do you use for your development?

Q2. In Karnataka there is some place is famous for hockey so why is so?

Member 4:

Q1. Why did you take Kannada literature after doing electronic and communication?

Q2. Ask the question related to communication I don't remember?

Q3. What is difference between growth and development?

Q4. How do you measure development?

Q5. What are the indicators for growth?

Q6. How is SHG performing in India?

Q7. What are famous folk arts in Karnataka?

Q8. What is unique about yakshagana?

Q9. What is cyber some?

Q10. Why other states are not able to adopt it?

Member 5:

Q1. Importance of communication in governance?

Q2. As a civil servant, how do you communicate with your subordinate?

Q3. Is there any arrangement for sharing of best practices among civil servants in India?

Q4. During the communication why is it difficult for the other person to understand it?