

Name- Seong Gi-hun//Date - 02 May, afternoon//

Board- Smita Nagraj//Optional- History// College- SRCC

Profession (if any)- IRPS//Hobbies- Book Reading

Utility of mocks (if any)- good for practice, the idea of questions from Daf, minor fine-tuning, Nothing More.

Chairperson

Asked where are you posted these days, and how many people are with you in training. (just to let me get comfortable)

Q1. Named some reasons behind corruption. How will you solve these issues? (gave some points)

Q2. Is this not going on?

Q3. Which reason for corruption according to you is most important (said red-tapism)

Q4. What is red-tapism?

Q5. Have you faced corruption? (talked about my experience)

Member 1

Q.1 You belong to small town, how was your locality, rural or urban?

Q.2 Why Patiyali is famous? (town in my district, birthplace of Amir Khusrau)

Q.3 Despite being the birthplace of Amir Khusrau, why has it's not developed?

Q.4 What are biofuels?

Q.5 India grows and exports a lot of rice. What is the problem in that, with respect to climate change?

Member 2

Q.1 India is growing economically, but is it not jobless growth?

Q.2 What is the railway university that's coming in Vadodara?

Q.3 Lot of South Asian and South East Asian countries have better socioeconomic indicators than India? How do you see this?

Member 3

Q.1 Do you follow table tennis, what was the incident between Manika Batra and her coach during Tokyo Olympics?

Q.2 What is crony capitalism?

Q.3 Work from home culture? What is its future, is it good?

Q.4 What type of books you have read? (book reading is my hobby)

Q.5 What books you have read on history?

Q.6 Why did you opt for history, despite being a commerce graduate?

Q.7 Who are subaltern historians? Have you ever read any book written by subaltern historians?

Q.8 Why IPL viewership is declining?

Member 4

Q.1 What is the govt target for tuberculosis?

Q.2 What are the problems in TB program?

Q.3 How will you solve these issues?

Chairperson - your interview is over

It went for about 25 minutes. Plain and simple, few hiccups in between, rest fine. Nothing unusual except light went off once.

#Sharing_is_Caring

#sab_honge_kaamyaab